Inspired by one of the country's favorite designers from Texas, this original European style plan from Nelson Design Group has been transformed into an elegant farmhouse. Complete with a wide open floor plan, shiplap, french doors, and tons of character.

Upon entry, your eyes will be drawn to the 8ft tall barn doors that open into my favorite room where the walls are lined with shiplap and the ceiling showcases beautiful stained wood. The family room features old school architectural style built-ins that adorn the painted brick fireplace. The chef ready kitchen is centered around a commercial style gas stove with double ovens and large island with gorgeous granite tops.

No detail has been left out as you will notice by the beautiful old school moldings throughout the house including beams on the dining room ceiling. The master suite of this 4 bedroom and 3.5 bath home will take your breath away with marble like tile throughout including the oversized shower.

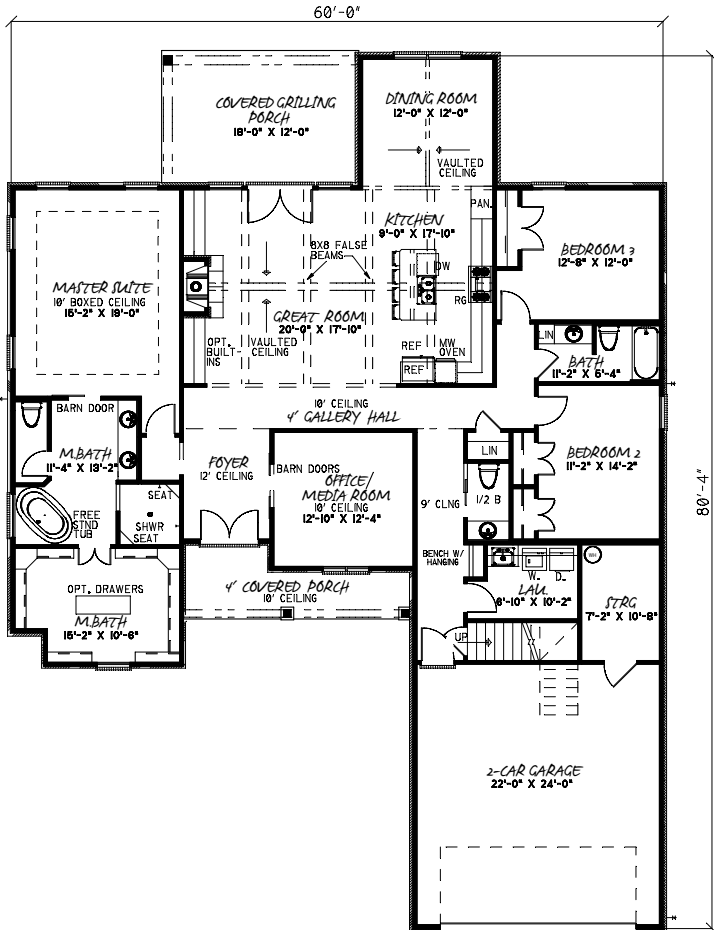

The 150 year old refinished clawfoot tub is accented by a gorgeous wall featuring porcelain tiles from Italy. The powder room might be small but it is filled with character including a repurposed dresser turned into a vanity by ReBorn Furnishings. In the guest bath you will find brick pavers placed tediously on an angle around the tub.

With all of these super cute details on the inside we had to make sure the exterior made a good first impression.

Enhance My Exterior has hand crafted wooden shutters, flower boxes, and gorgeous cedar wood garage doors.
